1 MR. ZEIGER: I think it's better to be clear on these 2 points. The government will produce -- substantially complete 3 its document production in accordance with the applicable
4 federal rules and in accordance with your order on the motion
5 to compel which is scheduled to be heard on September 16, 2010.
6 That should not be taken as a sign that we're not going to 7 reach agreement on that too. Everybody's working 8 constructively towards trying to get an agreed set of documents 9 that the government will provide and hopefully take some of 10 these issues, again, off the Court's plate. To the extent the 11 government doesn't hit that deadline, defendants shall be 12 entitled to reopen this schedule and also seek whatever relief
13 they want to seek from Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. ZEIGER: The other core substantive issue that 16 defendants raised with respect to our proposal was that they 17 felt a little jammed on the expert related issues in the case.
18 And I think that was a fair concern based on the current 19 schedule. To alleviate that, on Saturday we sent them a list 20 of 2,801 sites that our environmental expert is currently 21 considering, so they now have a list of the specific sites that 22 as of today will be included in our environmental report.
23 We'll do the same for our tort expert and also give them
24 descriptions of the other liabilities that we'll then roll up 25 into our solvency analysis.

1 can identify the sites that the government has agreed to 2 produce but has not produced; that would be one category. The 3 second category is a bit amorphous because they're documents 4 that have not yet been identified or produced, and those relate 5 to approximately 1,900 of the 2,500 plus sites at issue in this 6 litigation. I can provide Your Honor with a list of those 7 sites, although doing so is, quite frankly, a bit of a 8 challenge because the government has not provided us with its 9 environmental site list, pursuant to the CMO, as required back 10 in August.

11 THE COURT: All right. Let me -- well, shall I hear 12 from the government at this point?

13 MR. MCCALL: Certainly, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. PANTOJA: Good morning, Your Honor. Joseph 16 Pantoja for the government.

17 I was wondering would you like me to just go into an 18 argument or are you seeking me to just address certain points 19 at the moment?

20 THE COURT: Well, I think it would be particularly 21 useful if you address the arguments that counsel has just made.
22 Certainly counsel's argument has, I think, narrowed some of the 23 issues somewhat. There are two categories according to 24 counsel: the 1,900 sites that have not been the subject of any 25 document production according to the defendants and those

1 documents where the government has promised or undertaken to 2 produce certain documents but hasn't yet done so for whatever 3 reasons. Reading the papers there's been some dispute over the 4 form of production and exactly how production should be made,
5 but that may well be a subsidiary issue that takes on less 6 importance at the moment.

7 In terms of relief, counsel doesn't seem to be seeking 8 dismissal of the lawsuit altogether but more focused relief 9 such as -- and this is my formulation, not his -- that if you 10 don't ever produce any documents or you don't timely produce 11 documents with regard to some or all of the 1,900 sites as to 12 which they say they've received nothing then perhaps those 13 sites simply get crossed off the list at some point perhaps. I 14 don't know if that's correct or not. It would seem to me at 15 some point the proponent of the lawsuit has to produce 16 something with respect to the various sites, maybe not on a 17 one-by-one basis, maybe not. I don't know enough to say 18 anything other than it would seem to me at some point the 19 plaintiff would have to show some liability related to a site.
20 So are there 1,900 sites of the total as to which no documents
21 have been produced?

22 MR. PANTOJA: Your Honor, there are numerous sites for 23 which we don't have that many documents. But that said, a lot 24 of the -- a number of the sites are going to be established 25 through an expert and through an expert report and the

1 information developed and divulged to the Court in that 2 fashion.

3 And in addition, in this case it is undisputed that 4 the debtors have produced millions of pages with respect to the 5 sites at issue. And these are sites that common to the 6 debtors' complaint and the United States complaint and 7 intervention and also the proof of claims filed in this case.
8 So it is not true that they haven't received any documents with 9 respect to this universe of sites that they've identified.

10 THE COURT: So you're saying some of the documents
11 were produced by the debtor or the debtors --

12 MR. PANTOJA: Which we are not going to reproduce.

13 THE COURT: -- with regard to some of the sites. All 14 right.

15 MR. PANTOJA: And Your Honor, I think in light of the 16 fact that defendants appear to be still seeking sanctions, if I 17 could just give you a brief history of what we have produced so 18 you can appreciate the magnitude.

19 THE COURT: I've read the papers. I am, I think, 20 aware, without having spent untold hours studying the 21 production, I'm aware the government has produced millions 22 of -- I assume millions of documents, millions of pages of 23 documents and has thousands of pages of documents yet to 24 produce.

25 MR. PANTOJA: Your Honor, electronically -- with

1 issues impinge on some of the contentions that have been made 2 in this particular adversary proceeding. So all I'm saying is 3 that I'm not suggesting that we move the -- I think it's the -- 4 March 31st is the cutoff date for fact discovery.

5 MR. PANTOJA: Correct.

6 THE COURT: I'm not suggesting that we move it but I 7 would suppose that the only rational penalty I could see, on 8 the basis of the record as a whole, for any insufficiency in 9 document production to date, would be changing that day or -- 10 and that needn't be decided today; it could be decided later.
11 It's always nice to have a date to focus on because I'm sure 12 nobody wants to carry this lawsuit into the decade of 2020 and 13 beyond.

14 Yes, sir.

15 MR. YALEN: If I may, Your Honor, make a couple of 16 points of clarification very briefly?

17 THE COURT: Just state your name just so we keep the 18 record clear.

19 MR. YALEN: Robert Yalen, U.S. Attorney's Office for 20 the United States.

21 It is certainly very much the case that we operate as 22 an integrated team; we don't have a bankruptcy and a litigation 23 side separately, and we have been doing our very best in light 24 of the conflicting drains on resources.

25 I want to clarify in terms of the two different issues

1 which might have been a little conflated in the discussion.
2 The one issue is when we will have produced the documents that 3 were requested and as an accommodation we agreed to scan for 4 Anadarko, and that is the January 7th date.

5 In terms of the day when we'll be able to stand in 6 front of Your Honor and say we have finished producing the 7 remaining, for example, five percent of electronic documents 8 that Joe mentioned, we are doing our very best to make that the 9 end of January. I can't be certain that we're going to hit 10 that but we will do our very best. And this is -- one thing to 11 keep in mind is that these are open case files where these 12 sites around the country are actively producing new documents 13 and so there will always have to be some degree of 14 supplementation going forward.

15 On the first point, Your Honor identified about 16 the -- and I'm not sure what the number is but the 1,900 sites
17 that Mr. McCall says we haven't produced documents for. No one 18 disputes that at some point on a motion for summary judgment 19 the plaintiff has a burden to be able to show liability at the 20 respective sites. And further, no one disputes that when trial 21 should come, if this case comes to trial, we cannot use 22 documents or purport to use documents that we haven't told them
23 about or disclosed to them. But there are in fact many sites 24 that are state lead sites where the state agency has the 25 documents and has not been sent subpoenas and we don't have

1 them.

2 But more importantly, Tronox and Anadarko have swapped 3 many pages of documents about all these sites and Tronox has an 4 expert who we anticipate will prove liability at all of these 5 sites. So in that respect we think the idea that there's some 6 sanction for us not having documents for some of those sites, 7 we believe is misguided.

8 THE COURT: Well, I merely suggested that was a 9 possible sanction. Tronox has already put in a brief saying 10 that they shouldn't be penalized for the government -- any, any 11 omission in terms of discovery by the government. I assume 12 that when the environmental settlement goes into effect finally 13 that it will be clarified just who the plaintiff is in the 14 consolidated lawsuit I have before me and who's controlling the 15 litigation, if that's relevant, and I don't know that it is 16 While we're discussing the litigation -- and some of 17 the litigators are here -- I would note this for the record, 18 that in a recent communication from -- I think from Kirkland, I 19 was informed for the first time that the motion to dismiss the 20 amended complaint is considered by the parties to be sub 21 judice. That was news to me. No one has ever asked for a 22 hearing on that motion. I was told, I think, in the letter, 23 that the parties do not want oral argument. That is fine with 24 me. But it was a new piece of information because no one had 25 ever called and said please decide the motion, although I know

1 THE COURT: I do think, though, that if we're going to 2 get a litigation trustee in shortly, that it would probably be 3 to everyone's benefit to not have a third party come in, 4 perhaps sometime also in January, and have a whole new set of 5 ideas on how to prosecute this lawsuit and what to do and so 6 forth.

7 MR. ZEIGER: Understood, and we are trying to work 8 with the government. We've mentioned a number of times, in the 9 context of mediation, that the claim is in transition. I think 10 we're nearing the end of that transition period and our goal, 11 assuming we're retained as counsel for the trust, would be to 12 transition the claim in a seamless manner so the Court and the 13 parties are not inconvenienced by the transition.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. ZEIGER: With respect to the 2,800 sites we've 16 been hearing so much about, I'll briefly address that. At the 17 time of the IPO, the master separation agreement included 18 seventy specific sites. In mid-2008, Mr. Wanlass came to 19 Tronox, initially as chief restructuring officer, shortly 20 thereafter as CEO, and he asked what was the environmental 21 footprint of the company and he did not receive a satisfactory 22 answer.

23 Two years later, approximately, we now I think have 24 settled on the fact that there are approximately 2,800 sites
25 that we believe Tronox became exclusively liable for through

1 the IPO. That's the environmental footprint. Our expert has 2 been working very hard since February '09 to try to answer that 3 question. And that's the universe that we believe is correct.

4 We voluntar -- in connection with the second amended
5 case management order, we voluntarily disclosed that universe
6 to defendants and, frankly, the government. And in follow-up 7 conversations they said "Wow, 2,800 is an awful lot. Which are 8 the ones you're really focused on?" And we believe that's 9 going to be about twenty-five percent of that universe that our 10 expert ultimately will assign costs to.

11 On December 3rd we told them exactly which sites are 12 in that universe that our expert's focusing on, including 13 whether he's planning to assign costs on an individual basis
14 based on site-specific information, or on some kind of group 15 basis. A lot of these are former service station sites that 16 will probably be done on a group basis. And there may be other 17 groupings. So we tried to be transparent about this 2,800 so 18 everybody's experts can be doing whatever work they need to be 19 doing now rather than waiting for the -- for our expert reports 20 which are currently due March 15th.

21 We've also produced, as has been alluded to, an 22 extraordinary amount of information to defendants, several 23 million pages of environmental documents, and we gave them our 24 whole environmental drive -- we just handed it to them -- which 25 I'm told is 400 gigabytes. I don't honestly know what that

- (d) Defendants agree that they will not seek any extensions of the expert discovery deadlines set forth below based on the number of or types of sites or liabilities included in Plaintiffs' or the United States' expert reports or the length of Plaintiffs' or the United States' expert reports if all of the liabilities or categories of liabilities that Plaintiffs' and the United States' experts rely upon, value, estimate or issue an opinion concerning in their reports are disclosed on the schedule provided in paragraphs 8(a)-(c).
- (e) Plaintiffs and the United States shall identify their experts on or before February 3, 2011, and shall serve reports from their expert(s) retained under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2) on or before June 7, 2011.

- (f) Depositions of all parties' experts and rebuttal experts shall be completed by December 12, 2011.
- (g) Nothing in this Third Amended Case Management Order shall be construed to prohibit, or to permit, the United States of America from identifying and calling experts.

9. Dispositive Motions

- (a) All potentially dispositive motions shall be filed on or before January 16, 2012.
- (b) All opposition papers shall be due and filed on or before 30 days after the filing of any potentially dispositive motion.

10. Witness and Exhibit Lists and Motions in Limine

- (a) Witness lists, separately identifying each witness that the parties intend to call or may call as a witness, other than as a rebuttal witness, shall be exchanged 45 days before the start of trial.

Trial shall commence on March 28, 2012, or as soon thereafter as the parties may be heard.

12. Other Items

The parties' agreement to this schedule shall not be construed as a waiver of any right or privilege under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Court's Local Rules, or any other applicable state or federal law, including any right to move to compel or preclude discovery.

13. Modification of Scheduling Order

This case management order may be modified by mutual agreement of the parties, subject to Court approval, or by motion for good cause shown. This case management order is contingent upon trial of the above-styled and numbered adversary proceeding in this Bankruptcy Court, and shall be reconsidered in the event any party seeks to try this case in a different court, whether through the request of a trial by jury or otherwise. Defendants believe it may be appropriate or necessary to continue the current March 28, 2012 trial date to provide the Court an opportunity to rule on any dispositive motions sufficiently in advance of trial. Plaintiffs do not believe that it is appropriate or necessary to continue the trial date because Defendants choose to file a dispositive motion. The parties, however, agree that nothing herein shall waive any party's right to seek a continuance of the trial date to allow additional time for the Court to rule on any dispositive motions.

SO ORDERED this 7th day of February, 2011
